After breakfast, check out from your Ranchi hotel and head towards Netarhat, a popular hill station in Jharkhand. Upon arrival, check in to your hotel and begin exploring local attractions such as Netarhat Lake, Netarhat School, Ghaghri Falls, and the Pear Orchard. In the evening, witness the breathtaking view from Magnolia Sunset Point. Return to the hotel for dinner and an overnight stay in Netarhat.

Day 2: Netarhat to Betla via Lodh Falls | Palamu Fort Visit

Wake up early and head to Koel View Point or the Sunrise View Point near Hotel Prabhat Vihar to witness the mesmerizing sunrise. Explore the surrounding pine forests and the historic Chalet House. After breakfast start your journey towards Betla. En route, explore the stunning natural beauty of Jharkhand by visiting Lodh Falls – the highest waterfall in the state – followed by Sugga Bandh Falls and Mirchaiya Waterfall. After enjoying these scenic spots, continue your drive to Betla. Upon arrival, check in at your property and have lunch. In the afternoon, head out to visit the historic Palamu Fort, nestled within the Betla forest range. Return to your hotel by evening, have dinner, and stay overnight at Betla.

Day 3: Betla Safari, Kechki Sangam & Departure

Start your day early with an adventurous jungle safari at Betla National Park (Closed between July–September). After returning to the hotel, have your breakfast and check out. On the way back to Ranchi, take a detour to visit Kechki Sangam, the picturesque confluence of the Koel and Auranga rivers. Nearby stands the iconic bungalow where Satyajit Ray shot scenes for his film Aranyer Dinratri. Continue the drive and reach Ranchi by evening for your drop-off at the airport or railway station. Tour ends with beautiful memories.
